SAYS WORLD'S U-BOATS WILL GO TO JUNKPILE

Britain Claims England and America Will Bar Submarines From Navies.

PROVE BARBAROUS WEAPONS

Undersea Vessels in Hands of Unscrupulous Enemy Declared Unamenable to Laws of War in Declaration of Nations.

BY ROBERT WELLES RITCHIE.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Great Britain and the United States already have reached a definite agreement upon the question of the use of U-boats in future wars, whatever may be the final compromise with the French on the subject of the disposition of the German fleet at Scapa Flow. This I learned tonight on the authority of a British Admiralty official, who said:

"From this position we two nations (England and America) will not retreat. U-boats have proven a barbarous weapon, unamenable under the laws of war when in the hands of an unscrupulous enemy."

"They must be blotted out from the world's armament."

The words solemnly spoken, were followed by a second startling statement:

"The result of this decision is that every German submarine everywhere will be scrapped and sold as old metal."

Britain and the United States will take the lead in the scrapping of submarines from their own fleets, and the other nations in the league of nations must follow suit.

Representatives Sloan, of Nebraska, and Fess, of Ohio, Republicans, joined with Mr. Moore in speeches attacking the corporation. They urged its early discontinuance, in the interest of economy.

An appropriation of $300,000 for the study of the disease is contained in the sundry civil appropriation bill, now before the House, but Admiral Bratton said this would not be sufficient to undertake the research work on the necessary large scale. He recommended a special appropriation to be divided between the navy and the surgeon-general of the army.

At the close of the afternoon session, Mr. Asher gave his usual lecture on Christianity.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Legislation drafted by the House and Senate for enforcement of the wartime prohibition law which becomes effective July 1, was reported to the House today at the same time a minority opposition report was filed by Representative Lutz, of Pennsylvania, who said passage of the bill would be a "usurpation of power" and that during the period of national reconstruction the legislation would do much to the spirit of unrest.

The industrial situation also was referred to in the majority report.

"Riot and revolution due to the spirit of unrest engendered by the war," it said, "are preached everywhere. Strikes and industrial disturbances are imminent. Under the pretext of such circumstances the usual precaution is to close the saloons, as tends to greatly aggravate the evil."

SUNDAY RECEIVES BASKET OF POSSES

Says "Ma" Might Kick if Flowers Came From Only One Girl.

100 PERSONS "HIT TRAIL" EVANGELIST PAINTS COMICAL PICTURES OF ZACHAEUS ON TREE LIMB WATCHING JESUS.

Mr. Sunday's sermon on "Zachaeus" was the feature of the service of this issue of The Times-Dispatch.

His mobile face alight with humor, Billy Sunday held up one finger and cried: "Strike One!" when Judge Ernest H. Wells, in presenting a magnificent basket of flowers to the former baseball star last night unexpectedly called attention to the fact that the flowers had only been coming since "Ma" Sunday left town.

"Ma" doesn't mind delegations of girls sending flowers," defended Mr. Sunday, "but if they were coming from just one girl, I might kick."

The Winston-Salem, N. C., Lottard & Co. was represented by a delegation of nearly 1,000 employees.

The Auditorium was packed and people were turned away after every aisle seat was taken.

EVANGELIST PICTURES OF ZACHAEUS ON LIMB

With sympathy and understanding, Billy Sunday painted from the subtle picture of the sinner a life-size picture of the sinner on the limb of the sycamore tree, which he had climbed, out of sheer curiosity, to get a good view of Jesus as He went by.

He depicted, as only the born comedian would have been able to do, Zachaeus "shining" down the sycamore tree, and eagerly taking Jesus home with him to dinner, and he convulsed the audience by his impersonation of "Mrs. Zachaeus" hastily removing her apron and proceeding to "do up" when the children reported that the evangelist was approaching with possible guests for dinner.

Mr. Sunday then proceeded to introduce the disciples, in turn, to the fluttered matron, while the audience laughed and applauded.

WOMEN WORTHY OF VOTE, LUPTON SAYS

Corporation Commissioner Thinks They Will Use Franchise Intelligently.

He and Mrs. Hubert Talk in Interest of National Land Army Movement.

Firm conviction that when the time came for women to exercise equal franchise rights with men they would do it intelligently and would use the privilege "to a man" was expressed in a speech before the Woman's Club yesterday by S. L. Lupton, member of the State Corporation Commission, and former State Senator.

Since the membership of the Woman's Club is largely composed of the antislavery element, there was but one confession.

Commissioner Lupton was speaking to a meeting of representatives of the National Land Army in Virginia, of which Mrs. M. C. Patterson is chairman.
